Draft Notification for TRC No. 5 of 2016
(GOODS)

Sub: Exemption from payment of Wagon Registration Fee
(C.515/RGI/Pt.14)

Ref: Commercial Circular No. 82 of 2015

Authority: Boards Freight Marketing Circular No. 15 of 2015.

1. Para 3 of Freight Marketing Circular No. 15 of 2015 stipulates that the earnings criterion for reckoning the different type of the category of 'Premier Customers' as Platinum, Gold and Silver card holders shall be as under:

- i) 'Outward Traffic booking from 'Sidings' alone will form the criteria for classifying the premier A 48 customers.
- ii) Only 'Outward Traffic' from 'Sidings' will be eligible for reckoning the category under which the siding falls.
- iii) The loading of any 'Outward Traffic' from the Sidings has to be "Paid traffic".
- iv) Parties having multiple sidings on a single railway shall be classified on the basis of originating earnings of each sidings separately. No clubbing of originating earnings from each of the sidings is envisaged under this scheme.

2. Board has also advised that Zonal Railways shall complete a list after an annual review of Platinum, Gold & Silver card holders of their Railways and publish the same, under intimation to Board's office. The list shall be updated by the Zonal Railways for each financial year.

3. The 'Premier Customers' shall be exempted from the requirement of payment of Wagon Registration Fee for Wagons/rakes indented by them.

4. Board vide RC No. 02/2007 (CC No.17 of 2007) advised that w.e.f. 25-01-2007 an amount equal to Wagon Registration Fee may be collected from Premier customers who have been exempted from Wagon Registration Fee, if they cancel their indents under any circumstances notified in Rule 201(15) of Goods Tariff No.41, Part I. (Vol.1).
