

Shri G. John Prasad, IRTS takes charge as Principal Chief Commercial Manager, South Central Railway

Shri G. John Prasad has taken charge as Principal Chief Commercial Manager, South Central Railway today i.e., 24th June, 2019. He belongs to the 1986 batch of (IRTS) Indian Railway Traffic Service. Prior to this assignment he was holding the post of Principal Chief Operations Manager, South Western Railway, Hubballi, Karnataka.

Shri G. John Prasad is a Post Graduate in Political Science from Central University of Hyderabad. During the course of his 32 years long illustrious career, he has held several important executive and managerial positions in Operations and Commercial Departments of various Zones. Amongst the posts he held are as Additional Divisional Railway Manager, Hyderabad and Secunderabad Divisions of SCR in two different spells. He was also the Chief Commercial Manager (Catering & Passenger Service); Chief Commercial Manager (Freight Services) and Chief Traffic Planning Manager, SCR; Chief Passenger Transportation Manager, Southern Railway. He also served a spell as Chief General Manager, CONCOR (Container Corporation of India Limited), Southern Region, Chennai.

During his tenure as the head for Operations on South Western Railway in 2016-17, he was credited with achieving the best ever performance in freight loading on the Zone in the last one decade. He also played a key role in handling train operations during Krishna Pushkaram in year 2004 when he was the Senior Divisional Operations Manager, Vijayawada Division, SCR.

Shri G. John Prasad completed one Year Operational Management Program in Germany and a short term Multi-Modal Logistics Module at Antwerp, Belgium and in Italy. He is expert in Social Sciences, music lover and a fitness enthusiast.